Director in the Office of Music

Description

The Director of the Office of Music is mandated to improve the liturgical music in the parishes and other institutions of the diocese by

- 1) modeling liturgical music at diocesan liturgies which reflect the laws, values, and principles on music outlined in the various liturgical documents;
- 2) collaborating with the professional and volunteer musicians at these celebrations;
- 3) providing educational, spiritual, and other opportunities to parish music ministers;
- 4) providing resources on legal compliance regarding copyright and other matters, and ensuring that compliance occurs on the diocesan level;
- 5) assisting with matters pertaining to acoustics, sound systems, and musical instruments;
- 6) providing parishes with counsel regarding personnel (both professional and volunteer);
- 7) assisting the clergy of the diocese with their liturgical gatherings, including convocations, retreats, ordinations, and funerals.
- 8) assisting parish ministers with the implementation of the celebration of the Liturgy of the Hours.
