Director of Strategic Finance

Description

Full-time, exempt

Start Date: August 1

The Director of Strategic Finance serves as senior financial leader for Overbrook Catholic School and St. Cecilia Academy, providing strategic direction in financial stewardship, planning, analysis, and organizational effectiveness. This position partners with the President, Principals, and senior leadership to ensure the responsible stewardship of resources and the long-term financial sustainability of the ministry of Catholic education.

The Director of Strategic Finance leads initiatives that strengthen organizational effectiveness through collaborative and thoughtful development of systems, policies, processes, and business practices. This role provides strategic analysis and recommendations that support sound decision-making, operational excellence, and alignment of resources with the mission and priorities of the organization.

As a Catholic ministry, Overbrook Catholic and St. Cecilia Academy are committed to the faithful stewardship of the resources entrusted to support our mission. We seek a leader who embraces the principles of integrity, accountability, ethical financial management, and service that guide our Business Office.

Rooted in Catholic Social Teaching, the Director of Strategic Finance recognizes the inherent dignity of every person and approaches financial leadership with fairness, compassion, and respect. This role reflects a commitment to faithful stewardship of resources and to serving all members of our community, recognizing Christ in those we encounter and ensuring that financial decisions support both the mission of the organization and the people we serve.

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in Accounting, Finance, Business Administration, or a related field required. CPA, MBA, or other advanced degree or professional certification preferred.
- Minimum of eight years of progressively responsible experience in finance, accounting, or business leadership, including experience with strategic planning, organizational analysis, process improvement, and advising senior leaders. Experience in nonprofit organizations and/or educational settings preferred.
- Demonstrated experience in strategic financial planning, budgeting, financial analysis, audit oversight, and financial policy development.
- Experience developing, improving, and implementing organizational systems, internal controls, compliance practices, and business processes that strengthen operational effectiveness.
- Demonstrated ability to lead cross-functional initiatives, manage change, and develop solutions that improve organizational effectiveness and sustainability.
- Experience building collaborative relationships and working effectively with diverse stakeholders, including executive leaders, board members, faculty,
