Marketing Intern

Description

Join Overbrook Catholic School and St. Cecilia Academy as a marketing team summer intern. You will work with a creative and collaborative group and gain experience with website design, social media strategy, ad creation, and content management. Specific projects include assisting with photography, website refreshes, editing admissions and handbook information, and creating content for the coming year. The work of the Marketing and Communications department enhances the visibility of the campus schools and makes them attractive to the community. We appreciate new ideas and different perspectives and look forward to you joining our team.

Personal Traits:

- Commitment to and enthusiasm for the Catholic mission and values of Overbrook Catholic School and St. Cecilia Academy
- Appreciation for the Dominican charism as it is lived and expressed on the Campus
- Excellent written and oral communication skills
- High level of professionalism and excellent interpersonal skills
- Flexible and with an ability to collaborate well with colleagues
