Organist

Description

We are looking for an enthusiastic and dedicated organist. The organist should also be able to work with various accompanists to enhance musical pieces as needed. To be successful as an Organist, you should be creative, flexible, and passionate about music. The Organist is generally on duty during weekend Masses. The organist works with the Music Coordinator to assist with weekly choir practice and has the ability to be present for weddings, funerals and special events.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Playing the musical portions of the service and accompanying and/or conducting the choir(s)
- Selecting music as needed, and learning, practicing, and/or reviewing it for effectiveness
- Selecting, planning, and practicing hymn accompaniments and appropriate settings for sections of the service
- Learning and adapting choir accompaniments for the organ
- Attending choral rehearsals, rehearsing with other musicians or soloists, and preparing for all such rehearsals
- In conjunction with the music coordinator, select new organ compositions to meet the special and changing needs of the services
- Notify music coordinator and church office administrative assistant regarding maintenance needs of the organ and other musical instruments
- Collaborating with the music coordinator to establish proper balance of all sound sources to ensure helpful and effective musical leadership in worship
- Willingness to practice organ regularly and maintain/increase playing ability
- Be open to participate and be involved in professional organist association(s)
- Arranging for substitutes during times of absence
